

Idaho Press Tribune, Wednesday, Dec. 30, 2009

DUMP HUNGER FILLS TRUCKS WITH FOOD

Ethan Jones, 8, of Meridian, son of a Western States Equipment employee, brings a bag of food donated to the business Tuesday morning

Employees of Western States Equipment line up to donate food into the back of a Caterpillar 730 dump truck Tuesday morning at the Meridian business where they kicked off the Dump Hunger campaign to collect 150,000 pounds of food enough to fill two dump trucks. Western States, Caterpillar heavy equipment dealer for the Treasure Valley is conducting the month-long food drive for the Idaho Foodbank. Donations can be made at the at the company's offices at 500 East Overland Road in Meridian

